

WHY I'M VOTING NO

The NTPS seeks to increase the employment and retention of Aboriginal people using Special Measures, yet relevant clauses that would reflect a diverse workplace have not been achieved – paid cultural leave, a definition of family that includes kinship and affective relationships and lack of extension of professional development.

There isn't any certainty in the current deal. Too much of the "agreement" sits outside of the EBA in by-laws and NT Policy, which they can decide to change at any time with limited consultation.
